

Moving In: Ten Successful Independent Living/Transitional Living Programs

Edited by Mark Kroner, M.S.W., L.S.W.

Moving In explores ten Independent Living, Transitional Living and combined IL-TL programs across the country, offering providers a clear picture of how they can develop their own programs.

Moving In offers agencies new to this area of service and those seeking upgrades to their operations a fine opportunity to read about and compare projects employed in other states. Presented are programs as diverse as their locations.

Use For:

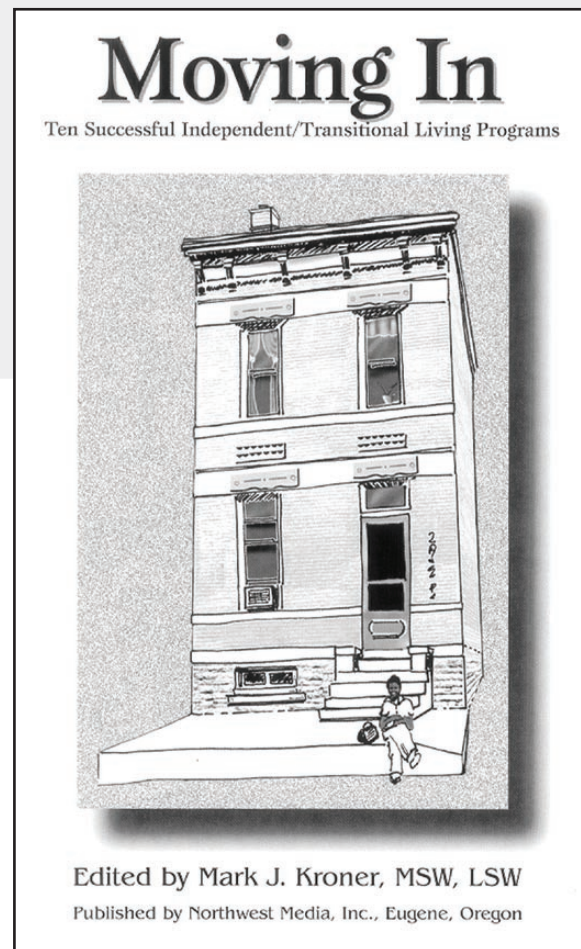

- Professionals

Among the topics discussed in each program are:

- Housing
- Financial support
- Life skills training
- Emotional support/guidance
- Case management/planning
- Outreach

Sections presenting possible pitfalls include:

- Our Most Common Problems with Clients
- Things Staff Would Like to See Happen
- Most Common Staff-Related Problems
